Grade 10 Intermediate Ensemble - Band
Unit 1: Technical Development

Overview: Correct breathing and embouchure formation has an enormous effect on the success of playing a musical instrument. All physical components – body posture, hand position, finger technique, etc. – must be aligned for an instrumentalist to perform at his or her best. The development of technique is a life-long pursuit.

Modifications for At-Risk Students

Formative and summative data will be used to monitor student success. At first signs of failure, student work will be reviewed to determine support. This may include parent consultation, basic skills review and differentiation strategies. With considerations to UDL, time may be a factor in overcoming developmental considerations. More time will be made available with a certified instructor to aid students in reaching the standards.

- Increase one on one time
- Teachers may modify instructions by modeling what the student is expected to do
- Using visual demonstrations, illustrations, and models
- Give directions/instructions verbally and in simple written format.
- Peer Support
