Grades 11-12 Honors Ensemble - Band
Unit 3: Listening and analysis

Overview: Music is an aural engagement. The ability to hear, assess, interpret, analyze, process and reproduce musical timbre and pitch, is integral to one’s success as a musician. Ear training is an essential part of a musician’s music education. Listening to great performers imparts many kinds of musical knowledge that no amount of reading could ever convey.

Enduring Understanding	Indicator #	Performance Expectations
Musicians evaluate, and refine their work through openness to new ideas, persistence, and the application of appropriate criteria	1.3B.12acc.Cr3b	Share music through the use of notation, solo or group performance, or technology, and demonstrate and describe how the elements of music and compositional techniques have been employed to realize expressive intent.
Individuals' selection of musical works is influenced by their interests, experiences, understandings, and purposes. Response to music is informed by analyzing context (i.e., social, cultural, historical) and how creator(s) or performer(s) manipulate the elements of music.	1.3B.12acc.Re7b	Analyze aurally and by reading the scores of musical works the elements of music (including form), compositional techniques and procedures, relating them to style, mood and context. Explain how the analysis provides models for personal growth as a composer, performer and/or listener.
Performers' interest in and knowledge of musical works, understanding of their own technical skill, and the context for a performance influence the selection of repertoire.	1.3C.12prof.Pr4b	Demonstrate, using music reading skills (where appropriate), how compositional devices employed and theoretical and structural aspects of musical works impact and inform prepared or improvised performances.
Musicians judge performance based on criteria that vary across time, place, and cultures. The context and how a work is presented influence audience response.	1.3C.12int.Pr6a	Demonstrate attention to technical accuracy and expressive qualities in prepared and improvised performances of a varied repertoire of music representing diverse cultures and styles.
The personal evaluation of musical work(s) and performance(s) is informed by analysis, interpretation and established criteria.	1.3D.12int.Re9a	Describe how the elements of music are manipulated and knowledge of the context (e.g., social, cultural) informs the response.

Assessment Plan

- Quarterly Assessment: Performance- Based
- Timelines, Maps, Charts, Graphic Organizers
- Unit Assessments, Chapter Assessments, Quizzes (art history content, elements and principles content)
- Critiques/Reflection time
- Accountable Talk, Debate, Oral Report, Role Playing, Think Pair, and Share
- Projects, Portfolio, Presentations, Prezi, Gallery Walks
- Homework
- Essays, Short Answers
- Thumbnail sketches, Blueprints, Timelines, Maps, Charts, Graphic Organizers
- Artists statements
- Rubrics

- Alternative Assessments:
- Analyzing primary source documents on the history of band ensemble in various cultures.
  - Conduct short research projects on the cultural origins of ensembles to support analysis, reflection, and research.
  - Use technology to create a presentation
  - Evaluate informal in- class performances and video evidence of student performances using observation, discussions, drawings, video, and simple student-created rubrics.

Modifications for Special Education/504

Students with special needs: The students' needs will be addressed on an individual and grade level using a variety of modalities. Accommodations will be made for those students who need extra time to complete assignment. Support staff will be available to aid students related to IEP specifications. 504 accommodations will also be attended to by all instructional leaders. Physical expectations and modifications, alternative assessments, and scaffolding strategies will be used to support this learning. The use of Universal Design for Learning (UDL) will be considered for all students as teaching strategies are considered. Additional safety precautions will be made along with additional staff so all student can fully participate in the standards associated with this Art Curriculum.

- Small group instruction
- Modeling and guided practice
- Read directions aloud
- Repeat, rephrase and clarify directions
- Extended time as needed
- Break down assignments into smaller units
- Provide shortened assignments
- Modify testing format
- Graphic organizers\

Modifications for At-Risk Students

Formative and summative data will be used to monitor student success. At first signs of failure, student work will be reviewed to determine support. This may include parent consultation, basic skills review and differentiation strategies. With considerations to UDL, time may be a factor in overcoming developmental considerations. More time will be made available with a certified instructor to aid students in reaching the standards.

- Increase one on one time
- Teachers may modify instructions by modeling what the student is expected to do
- Using visual demonstrations, illustrations, and models
- Give directions/instructions verbally and in simple written format.
- Peer Support
