"Citizens Advisory Committee of Winslow Township School District was formed for the purpose of seeking advice, recommendations, and providing widespread involvement in issues affecting the district."

What: The Winslow Township Board of Education believes in the active involvement and participation of the Winslow Township community in advancing the philosophy, mission and goals of the district. The Board of Education Citizens Advisory Ad Hoc Committee is formed by the Board for the purpose of seeking advice, recommendations and providing widespread involvement in issues affecting the district. As the district grows and changes, this Ad Hoc Citizens Advisory Committee allows the Board to increase involvement in the school district by receiving input from the community on key issues that emphasize a collaborative and innovative learning partnership approach.

Who: Residents age 18 years and older within Winslow Township and Chesilhurst Borough, Camden County, New Jersey who are interested in serving a term of one year. Interested individuals should have the following understanding:

- Committee Provides Recommendations Only
- Committee Members' Expectations
- Committee's Duties and Responsibilities

The Ad Hoc Citizens Advisory Committee will be comprised of community members. Collectively, the Committee will represent the diverse populations of Winslow Township and Chesilhurst.

The Committee will operate within the regulation specified in Winslow Township School District Regulation Policy, Section: Community, 9140, Citizen Advisory Committee, Edited: April 2010.
