HSA Holiday Shop and Family Fun Night

From December 8th - 12th, the School 4 Home and School Association sponsored both a Holiday Shop and a Family Fun Night for the students. The Holiday shop presented an opportunity for students and their families to buy inexpensive items for family and friends.

Family Fun Night on December 11th, presented an opportunity for Pre School and Kindergarten students to wear their pajamas to school and eat cookies. Students and their families also enjoyed hearing stories read by the school librarian and taking pictures with Santa himself!

Season for Giving

The staff at School #4 embraced the holiday season filled with love, joy, and the spirit of giving.

School Counselor Laura Duca and School Nurse Reese-Reeber continue to go above and beyond the call of duty to organize and implement activities that support the learning, and health and well being of staff, students, and stakeholders. Together they coordinated a school-wide staff effort to provide select families with a proper Christmas. This was actualized in the form of a School #4 Giving Tree.

This effort resulted in School #4 being able to assist the family of a little boy recovering from Leukemia; and also the family of a 70+ year old grandmother who just lost her son to cancer and who is now solely responsible for caring for her first grade granddaughter.

This season proved to be a good reminder that it is truly better to give than to receive.

Second Grade Winter Concert

On December 18th and 19th, the second grade students presented their annual Winter Concert, directed by Music Teacher, Tina Stanfa. This production of "An Old Fashioned Christmas" resulted in a standing room only crowd on the night of the 18th, and standing ovations for the students' performances.

School 4 would like to thank Board of Education member, Ms. Peterson, for taking time out of her busy schedule to attend our show on December 18, 2014.

Winslow Township High School proudly presents and invites all parents, students, faculty and community members to our second Student Forum titled "College and Career Readiness." The event will take place on January 14th at 7:00 pm in the high school cafeteria. Panelists for this event will include current students, famous alumni, college and career representatives and employers. Topics of discussion will range from how to prepare for college, "the real world," balancing responsibilities as student and athlete and what colleges or employers most desire in students. Attendees can expect to visit with several college reps who will be hosting information booths, ask questions of the panelists regarding college and career, financial aid, scholarships, win raffle prizes such as book bags, college hoodies and much more by registering at the door and of course, refreshments will be served by Winslow Township Educator's Association-Pride. Last year's event was standing-room only. So please come early and support this venture. Hear our past and present students voice their thoughts. Use the forum to voice your experiences and concerns. Please join us in making this night a fruitful coming together of past and present and for the future.

The Winslow Township High School Drama Club and Stage Crew are proud to announce that casting is complete for the upcoming production, The Wiz. Students from the high school will join Winslow's middle school and elementary students in this version of the magical story of the Wizard of Oz. Rehearsals will begin in January for the cast while the crew will be busy with set construction and design. The production team, cast and crew are all excited to bring this super soul musical to life on the Winslow Township High School Stage. There will be four performances: Thursday, March 19th at 7:30pm, Friday, March 20th, at 7:30pm and Saturday, March 21st, at 2:00pm and 7:30pm. Please mark your calendars and plan to attend this wonderful musical.

Winslow Township High School's National Honor Society visited and facilitated harvest-celebrations for the students at School #3 on November 21st. Under careful guidance from advisors, Ms. Clark and Mrs. Santamaria, the N.H.S kids teamed up in groups of three and first held icebreaker games. The second activity titled "Thankful ball" engaged the students in rolling the ball, catching it and vocalizing something they were grateful for in their lives. Dropping the ball or not catching it meant elimination! The young and the older ones were challenged and thoroughly enjoyed this activity. The next activity the group orchestrated was called a "thankful hand." This consisted of the 3rd graders tracing their own hand and writing three things they were thankful for on it. All the kids were excited to decorate their creations and present them. The shy kids were encouraged and accompanied by WTHS NHS students during their public speaking ventures. The closing activity was for those kids who were shy and needed a little bit more help addressing their peers. The high school students got up first and said something nice about one of the kids in the classroom, followed by something nice they were going to do during the holiday. Most of the kids followed their lead. The day ended with an overflow of gratitude from the little ones. Some even went deeper by saying they considered the N.H.S members their "best friends." The high school students left with hearts filled with pride and love and they look forward to planning their next creative, monthly community service project.

On Dec. 17th, 2014, The Leo Club, Key Club and Winslow Township High School Orchestra visited the senior citizens at The Fountains at Cedar Parke in Atco, NJ. Students in these organizations brought the spirit and cheer of the holiday season to the residents by completing crafts, reading stories and socializing. In addition, the Winslow Township High School Orchestra, under Mr. William Gouse's direction, entertained residents with holiday tunes. The Leo Club advisor is Mrs. Danielle Freda and the advisors of The Key Club are Mr. Ethan Bobo and Mrs. Tara Cottle.

WTHS students in Mrs. Freda and Mrs. Young's sophomore English classes visited the Historical Edgar Allan Poe House in Philadelphia on December 12th, 2014. Students and chaperones arrived with great anticipation on the doorstep to be greeted by a guide, Helen, who is also a professional impersonator of the great novelist. She engaged the students in review and discussion and then led them through the history and rooms of the house. There was much titillating debate and conversations as each room revealed a piece of the author's dark and gruesome past. The high point of the tour was in the final room where a beating heart lay underneath the floorboards. Students tied it immediately to Poe's famous story, "the Tell-Tale Heart." They were not prepared, however, for the teacher who was hidden inside the dark closet by the guide to surprise the students during their scavenger hunt. At the end of the day, students piled the guide with questions and suppositions of their own regarding the house. It was a true journey into literature.

WTHS students in Mrs. Gary's Early Childhood II class take monthly trips to Winslow's school number 3. High School students are given the opportunity to plan and teach kids from pre-kindergarten to third grade. Students have to plan age-appropriate, themed activities based on their instruction and study at the high school. School 3 then becomes the forum where the high school students receive hands-on training as future teachers, parents and child care workers. At the end of each session, students and their mentees walk away with gainful insight and plans for the next time.

WTHS's Yearbook Committee, The Pearl and Ivy, consists of a group of students dedicated to capturing Winslow in its greatest light as they diligently work towards piecing together this year's yearbook. Six student editors, Madison Neumann, Marielle Gagliano-Hernandez, Alvin Davis, Chelsea Zackey, Joetta Mottas, and Sabrina Binhashim, have banded together under Ms. DiDonato's supervision to capture every Kodak moment throughout the school year and craftily arrange them into a finished piece. This year, the yearbook editors are focused on highlighting Winslow's diversity and have already selected the ideal book format to complement such a theme. So, as these students document Winslow's history and traditions with cameras in hand and "Press Passes" around their necks, please smile and say "2015!"

WTHS's Student Government facilitated the school's annual Giving Tree and provided holiday gifts to twelve families in need within the district's school community. Advisors, Stacie Dahl and Lisa Sass, collected and distributed the more than 100 gifts. Heartfelt thanks go out to the many high school faculty members and administrators, Mr. Nython Carter, Mrs. Joanne Ceaser and Mr. Walt Marlin, for their generous donations. The following clubs and their advisors also participated: National Honor Society, Rachel's Challenge, Renaissance, The Senior Class, Junior Class, Sophomore Class, JROTC and FCA. A special thank you goes to Mrs. Sharon Densten who provided beautiful handmade quilts for each family. Additionally, Mr. Glen Jackson, principal at school #6 and his staff, as well as Ms. Jennifer Trail and the staff at School #1, joined in the spirit of giving. Contributions were also received from Dr. Poteat, Ms. Stephanie McCrary and board member, Ms. Cheryl Pitts. Student Government also received a donation from the Winslow Township Lion's Club. Thank you all. The collective efforts helped to make the holidays brighter for many children in the Winslow Township school community.

The chamber choir was quite busy during the holiday season. Many of the students auditioned and received parts in the spring musical "The Wiz". They caroled at the Winter on the Avenue in Atco as well as participated in the tree lighting at Miller's Mulch. The choir accompanied the band in a performance of the song "Imani." With a fantastic winter concert behind them, chamber choir members are preparing for upcoming gigs and learning new spring music!

Nurse's Corner: Give the New Year a healthy start by reviewing and assessing key areas of our lives: fitness, nutrition, social, reducing stress. Remember to eat healthy by decreasing the amount of processed foods you eat. Try to eat 5 servings of fruits and vegetables a day. Avoid drinking soda and energy drinks. Get some physical activity every day! Have friends who are committed to your goals; you can exercise together, plan healthy moves and do your homework. Protect your ears from hearing loss. Take out those headphones and turn the volume down. Please don't text and drive. WTHS nurse invites students and faculty to visit the nurse's office and seek assistance in creating a goal-based health-plan-of-action. Have a healthy, happy and successful 2015.
